

Significant people in your life

This tool is used by your interviewer to get a picture of the people in your life and thus understand more about you. Please, write down the people in your life on the page putting them in a position relative to how close they are to you. For each person or group of people, please say your relationship and how often you see them. Only share what you are comfortable with sharing.

Name of the proposition:

---

Your name

---

